Article 1: General Provisions

1.1. Name, Headquarter, Duration and Language

1. The name of the non-profit organization is Confederation of Independent Football Associations, referred to elsewhere in this Constitution by its abbreviated title “CONIFA”.

2. The CONIFA headquarter are located in the city of Piteå, Sweden and may be moved to any other location, by resolution by the Annual General Meeting.

3. CONIFA is incorporated for an unlimited period of time.

4. English is the only official language of CONIFA and all minutes, correspondence and announcements shall be in English.

1.2. Composition

1. CONIFA shall consist of its affiliated members, governing the sport in accordance with the principles of CONIFA.

2. Members shall not be regarded as agents of CONIFA.

1.3. Principles

1. Football is a sport for people all ages and people of all abilities – recreational, competitive and world class.

2. CONIFA and its members shall take all reasonable care to ensure competitions and those participating in events respect fair play. CONIFA promotes the highest degree of sportsmanship and integrity among players, officials and administrators.

3. The organization shall be operated with high ethical standards and with no political and/or religious purposes.

4. All those working and participating in CONIFA events, including players, coaches, referees and administrators have a right to compete, work and participate in a harassment-free environment. CONIFA shall use its Code of Ethics to ensure there are no forms of harassment whether that be physical, psychological or other forms of harassment.

5. CONIFA supports the active participation of women in football at all levels and the representation of both men and women in any affairs of CONIFA beyond the field of play.

6. CONIFA shall take a responsible approach to safeguard the environment and managing resources in a sustainable way through its practices in hosting events and in managing its operations.

7. CONIFA shall not allow any form of discrimination to affects its decisions or actions, be it discrimination based on race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Anyone who deals with CONIFA and/or participates in its activities in any capacity, commit themselves by their actions to behave in a non-discriminatory and ethical manner.

8. CONIFA respects the freedom of press and promotes this important value to all of its members at all times.

9. CONIFA is committed to become a role model for transparency in international sports.

10. CONIFA recognizes the right of self-determination in a strictly non-political context. While CONIFA does encourage and support all People in identifying themselves with any nation, regardless of its political status, CONIFA does not support any actions directed against any other nations and thus, consequently, does not take sides in any conflicts or political debates.

1.4. Objectives

The overall objective of CONIFA is to:

Promote and celebrate people all over the world through football and cultural activities by:

1. Upholding the Principles of CONIFA and developing the spirit of friendship and mutual assistance among its Members.

2. Promoting and popularizing football worldwide.

3. Support and encourage the development of football as a sport for all.

4. Encourage the formation of new Members and strengthen the bonds between Members.

5. Fostering friendly sporting competition and to eliminate unfair and unsporting practices such as match fixing, match corruption, irregular and illegal betting, doping or illegal equipment to enhance performance.

6. Being authorized to collect donations and request or carry out any type of activity enabling to gather funds which shall be used to achieve objectives 1.4.1.-1.4.5.

1.5. Purposes

CONIFA aims to bridge people, nations, ethnicities, minorities and sportingly isolated territories all over the world through friendship, cultural exchange and the joy of playing football. The main purpose of CONIFA is strengthening people individually and collectively, while respecting differences, and thus contributing actively to world peace.

This purpose shall be achieved by:

1. Federating Football Associations and Clubs that represent People, Nations, Ethnicities, Minorities and geographically or sportingly isolated territories as defined in the Internal Regulations on Membership Admission, which are not yet a member of FIFA.

2. Organizing international football games and creating a platform for cultural exchange.

3. Preparing its affiliated members for international competitions, and for arranging administrative structures and matches to fulfill the conditions of the FIFA Admission rules, where possible.

4. Organizing friendly matches, tournaments and international competitions.

5. Promoting its own development and the development of its members.

1.6. Legal Status and Self-Image

1. CONIFA is a not-for-profit organization (ideell förening) governed by Swedish Law.

2. CONIFA is endowed with legal status and its Members and employees shall not be responsible for its debts, unless it is by a grossly negligent or willful conduct.

3. CONIFA understands itself as an additional platform to existing football organizations, such as FIFA, and with due respect of existing stately controlled institutions. CONIFA does not see itself as a competitor or opponent of any other sport governing body or organization, including FIFA.
